Exchange Student

This year, Perry High has opened a great door of international relationship and understanding. The addition of an American Field Service chapter to the community has given us an opportunity to broaden our knowledge of foreign lands and their people.

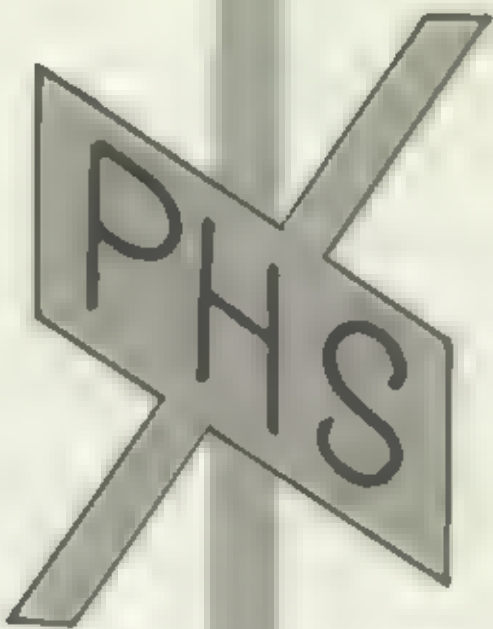

Satoshi Imanaka, the first of many, we hope, foreign exchange students, for the past year has made his home away from home with the Reverend and Mrs. John Propert. Satoshi, whose home is Osaka, Japan, has won our admiration both as a student and as a friend. We have enjoyed his presence in the community and in the school and we only hope that he has enjoyed us as much.

Mrs. Propert, Satoshi, and Reverend Propert

Ann,
To a very good friend of mine and Deanna too. Good luck in your remaining year at PHS (maybe I should have said a couple of years instead of one) Have fun don't lose too many waypoints and keep the number of kids to a minimum (I guess that's how you speed it) Also don't become a fog fiend Norm

Ann,
To a real sharp
girl (and how!!)
gets together
and get rich off the same time and don't fun sometimes.
